WAR WITH MEXICO LOOKED FOR BY OFFICERS OF THE U. S. ARMY

1,500 AMERICAN TROOPS CROSS THE MEXICAN LINE

BELIEVED LARGE PARTS OF MEXICO WILL SOON BE IN ARMS AGAINST UNITED STATES.

EL PASO, March 14 (1:30 p. m.)—It is reported from San Antonio that fifteen hundred American soldiers have crossed into Mexico "somewhere on the border," and fighting with Mexican bandits is expected momentarily to begin. The main expedition will move tomorrow. Military authorities have seized the telegraph and telephone offices at Columbus, New Mexico, and all automobile roads are closely guarded to prevent the movement of troops becoming known.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The expedition to get Francisco Villa is expected to enter Mexico today, but information as to the hour of departure, makeup of column and direction in which it goes is withheld. The censorship is to be complete in order that the object of the expedition may not be defeated.

Secretary Lansing is on his way to Pittsburgh, N. C., today for a rest. Before leaving the sec-tary stated that he expected no real trouble with General Carranza.

The view of Secretary Lansing, however, is not shared by army officers who have had border experience. They believe that the Villa sympathizers and anti-American agitators will continue their efforts to stir up trouble despite the agreement with Carranza, and would not be surprised to see a large part of Mexico soon in arms against the United States.

If a favorable opportunity offers, the thousands of Mexicans living on the American side of the border are also expected to make an attempt to seize a part of United States territory. Secret agents are closely watching this phase of the trouble and are keeping the department advised.

Consular Polk, acting secretary in the absence of Secretary Lansing, stated today that the American reply to Carranza's proposals had created a favorable impression throughout northern Mexico. While no word has been received direct from the provisional ruler, officials believe all danger of a clash is past.

BELIEVED VILLA IS SAFE IN TRAP—CARRANZA OFFICERS THINK HE WILL BE TAKEN SOON

EL PASO, March 14.—General Gabriel Garcia, Carranza's commander along the border, has declared that the bandit leader Villa, is trapped in the Guerrero district. He is now encamped at the little village of Galeana and is hemmed in on all sides. It is believed his capture will be effected soon.

The Carranza commander positively refuses to discuss the question of cooperation with United States soldiers. He says he has received no word from the provisional president on the matter.

U. S. To Erect Wireless Station.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—General Funston had advised the war department that he is erecting a wireless station at Fort Sam Houston near San Antonio. This fact is understood to mean that he will direct the campaign against Villa from that point, via wireless.

Carranza Troops Withdrawn.

DOUGLAS, March 14.—The Carranza forces are today being withdrawn from the international border. They are retiring from Aguaprieta and other points as rapidly as possible.

The first United States cavalry are due here this afternoon. It is probable they will at once be sent to Calles ranch, whence they may strike southwest at any time on short notice.

Paris Official Report.

PARIS, March 14.—The violent artillery duel continues about Verdun, but no recent infantry attacks have been reported. The above is issued in the Paris official report.

Most desirable residence property in Daytona, north corner Beach street and Live Oak avenue.

BINGHAM & THOMPSON, Agents,
174 South Beach Street.

BUYS MORE LAND IN HOLLY HILL

J. E. Thompson, of New York, and a winter resident of Seabreeze, has added to his real estate holdings in Holly Hill by the purchase, through J. C. Butler, of a tract of land on the river front owned by A. A. Bunnell, of Miami. The tract of land in question has a frontage on the river of about 500 feet and extends westward 900 feet to Daytona avenue. It is located between the residence properties of S. I. Merwin and J. W. English. It is understood that Mr. Thompson will improve the property as he did that purchased by him a short distance further south where he had an extensive fill made along the river front and also in that part of the property lying west of the county road, the dredging for the fill being done by F. A. Root. Mr. Thompson is even now continuing the improvement of this made land. C. A. Ballough, who built the seawall along the property, has erected coquina rock corner posts, both east and west of the county road. Mr. Thompson is also having the light, sandy material brought from the bottom of the river by the suction dredge covered with rich, black soil and will plant the land to grass.

It is unfortunate that more of the property owners in this section of low river frontage are unable or unwilling to follow Mr. Thompson's example and reclaim their holdings from inundation by high river tides. The filling in of this section of low frontage would greatly enhance the value of the property and add to the appearance of the river front and the beauty of the drive along the river shore between Daytona and Ormond, which is a link in the great highway to Miami.

IRISH TO CELEBRATE

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

A number of the Sons of Erin met last evening to arrange the preliminaries for a suitable celebration of St. Patrick's day in the city of Daytona. The use of the banquet hall of the German-American society has been secured for the occasion and a suitable spread will be provided as an introduction to the exercises which will be of a musical and literary character.

This gathering is designed to become the initiative for a closer union of all the Sons of Erin living in this neighborhood and to evolve plans for a permanent organization where visitors of the Irish may gather when visiting Daytona during the winter season, or at any other time during the year.

Mrs. J. J. O'Brien, Patrick F. Donahue and Mr. Hurley were selected as a committee for the arrangements of this celebration with power to enlarge the membership of the committee. The exercises will commence at 7 p. m., Friday evening at the rooms of the German-American society in the Arcade building.

All the Irish men and women interested and who desire to join in this celebration are invited to communicate without delay with J. J. O'Brien at 35 North Palmetto avenue, Daytona.

BROOKLYN REGULARS TRIMMED BY COLTS

Brooklyn Regulars were unexpectedly trimmed by the Colts at Daytona's Ebbets' field yesterday by 10 to 8, and Uncle Wilbert Robinson is wondering what happened.

Free hitting marked the game according to the scorecards but much of the long distance whacking was due to the perfect weather. Not a cloud was in the sky to furnish a background for the ball, and the fielders were unable to judge those that rose to any great height. It was what is known in baseball as a "high sky", and is much dreaded. Charley Stengel, who ranks among the best men in the league on flies, got one in his hands when he did not know he had it, and dropped it for an excusable error.

A man who accepted all the chances which came his way was Jimmy Hickman, the new outfielder, bought from the Baltimore Feds. He handled five flies and several of them required tall hustling on the sandy outfield. Ed Pfeffer, for the Regulars in the last six innings, was remarkably successful in combatting the high sky, and grabbed three lofty flies.

Pfeffer, Rucker and Coombs, all veterans, worked three innings a piece for the Colts. Coombs was the most successful, holding the Regulars to two hits. Pfeffer allowed three and Rucker five. Monte Prieste and Stevenson, recruit right-handers, and Wheeler Dell, a one-year-veteran, right-hander, worked three innings apiece for the Regulars, and all were hit more or less. Dell showed some of his 1915 wildness in the last inning and the two winning runs were largely due to two bases on balls in that round.

Mowrey opened the ninth for the Colts by working Dell for a pass. He went to third on Lawrence Miller's single. Manager Robinson told Miller he had been hitting too much to left and to try to place a single in right. Miller dutifully followed orders and the swat crossed the Regulars, who had been playing him as a dead left-field slugger. Mowrey went to third on the blow, and Miller hurried to second when Stengel booted the ball. Karst walked, filling the bases. McCarty fled to Stengel in short right, and the runners were held. Otto Miller had made a sacrifice fly and a single while covering first for the Regulars, and a single when switched behind the bat for the Colts. He now came through with the timely tap, sending a double to right that scored Mowrey and Lawrence Miller. Sherrod Smith popped to O'Mara and O'Mara threw out Coombs. The Regulars were retired in order in their half of the ninth.

The hitting thus far offers no real line on the pitchers or batters. The latter know that the twirlers are not

ALLANDALE

THE IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

Hopes to be able to announce the installation of our Telephone service by next week. This energetic body of workers have other good things under way—we will list a few only:

Prettiest Station Grounds on the Railway.
Bridge Across the Halifax River.
Picnic Grounds at Harbor Point.
Deep Water Pier.
Women's Exchange.
Post Office.
Town Hall.
Library.

HELP THE OTHER FELLOW—HE CAN HELP YOU

That has not been adopted as the slogan of our Association, but it exemplifies the spirit of the organization. They seem to have the belief that "the other fellow" is of the same mind, and that every one is going to do his level best to make ALLANDALE a town of tomorrow.

PUBLIC SPIRIT

There are many towns that lack this most necessary element to inspire one to do his best.

We have the will to do things in ALLANDALE — everybody wants to help. If we prosper it will not be due to our optimism, but to the broad point of view that includes our neighbor's success with ours.

Allandale

ready to use anything except a straight ball, mixed with a very occasional curve, and they are set for the offerings. Stevenson upset the calculations yesterday with more curves than were expected, but his main dependence was a straight ball. He allowed on hit in the fourth inning, none in the fifth, but was murdered in the sixth. That dolorous round was marked by doubles by Smith and Colwell, singles by Otto Miller, Rucker and Mowrey, and the hitting of Hickman by a pitched ball. The mess netted five runs.

Although Pfeffer, Rucker and Coombs were not invulnerable while pitching for the Colts, their showing was entirely satisfactory. They would not be permitted to extend themselves and the number of hits made off their toned-down delivery at this stage counts for nothing. No attempt at inside stuff was made yesterday because of the absence of First Baseman Jake Daubert and Second Baseman George Cutshaw and Third Baseman Gus Getz, who did not reach here until 2 a. m., Sunday. It will take Cutshaw and Getz several days to get their arm in shape so that it will take a chance on snapping the ball. Each used his head yesterday and refused to shoot in mid-season form when he had opportunities to retire runners on close plays.

Ivan Olson, who started at short for the Colts, was sent to the clubhouse by Umpire Charley Rigler in the first inning. Olson was called out at the plate in the first inning, and was exceedingly vexed. He concluded an oration by throwing a handful of sand at Rigler. That, in turn, fretted the ump, who had been impervious to the fervent remarks. Rigler had asserted that the diamond contained no sand but was all first-class loam, warranted to raise grass. When Olson threw the sand Rigler, who built the ground, felt that he was being shown up, and canned the violent athlete.

Ira Colwell, a pitcher, took Olson's place at short and filled it surprisingly well.

Mack Wheat, a brother of Left Fielder Zack Wheat, caught the whole game for the Regulars, and was the only man on either side to get three hits.

Sherrod Smith and Ed Pfeffer were two of the most dangerous hitting pitchers in the National league in 1915. They are on their way to hold that reputation in 1916. Smith made two doubles in five times up yesterday, while playing right for the Colts and Pfeffer cracked a two-bagger to right on his only time up for the Colts. In his three times up as center fielder for the Regulars, Pfeffer reached first once, and that was on a wide throw by Colwell.

Manager Robinson told the newly arrived newspaper men on Sunday that Stengel looked better last Saturday than he did all last season, when he was ill at Daytona and did not begin to hit until the campaign was nearly over. That remark was borne out yesterday when Stengel made two hits. His ability as an outfielder, especially in the sun field, is conceded and the only question has been about his swatting.

The Brooklyn club will send a team to DeLand tomorrow to play on college.

An exhibition game for Brooklyn has been arranged for April 23 with the Providence, R. I., International leaguers at Providence.

AUTO THIEF CAPTURED AFTER ALL NIGHT CHASE THROUGH HAMMOCK

DEPUTY SHERIFFS AND LARGE POSSE SCOUR HAMMOCK—THIEF CAUGHT CROSSING RAILROAD NEAR TOMOKA TRESTLE.

After an exciting manhunt through the hammock, lasting the entire night and part of this morning, the Daytona officers cornered and captured one of the highway men that snatched M. Macon's Chevrolet automobile literally from under his feet at 9:00 o'clock last evening in front of the Rexall drug store on Beach street. The thief is now locked up in the Ormond jail pending a preliminary hearing before the justice of the peace. He gave his name as Richard M. Callon, of Clermont, Florida.

Several automobile loads of armed men had been searching through the hammock growth covering Tomoka point since daylight. A party of campers ensconced on the river bank only a short distance from where the stolen car was abandoned joined forces with Deputy Sheriff Milton and his band. They spread out fan-shape, beating back and forth through the almost impassible brush after stationing guards on the railroad near Tomoka crossing and along each of the numberless wood roads intersecting that part of the country.

The Capture.

At 9:30 this morning, Deputy Sheriff Milton and Deputy Sheriff Joe Davis found themselves on the railroad track near the Ormond depot. The officers reasoned the robbers would attempt to leave the point and strike inland, perhaps, crossing the river at the trestle. They kept well in the cover of the trees and moved up toward the station.

Suddenly a man broke from the north side of the track and started in the direction of Daytona. Milton and Davis gave instant chase. The actual capture was in a way an anticlimax because their man was unarmed and thoroughly disheartened. He admitted having eloped with Macon's car, and admitted he was the driver of same in the wild ride that followed tortuous roads in the hammock country. He was locked up in Ormond jail.

Armed Posse Scouring Woods.

Ex-Mayor Titus, Officer Humphreys, Chief Milton and Deputy Sheriff Davis and others returned to Tomoka point immediately after getting together a stock of provisions and went into camp. As Deputy Sheriff Milton said, "We're here till we get 'em," and it is hardly likely that will be long.

The remaining robber cannot get very far without running into an armed guard, and there is mighty little to sustain interest in life to be found in the Tomoka hammock.

It is certain the pair were totally unfamiliar with the country, else they would have selected the peninsula and the road to Ormond for their getaway. Upon finding themselves cornered on the point, the only sure method of escape was across the river. The robbers did not attempt to swim it, however.

Prisoner Admits Guilt.

A News representative visited the prisoner in the Ormond jail, in answer to questions concerning the robbery, he said:

"Yes, I did it, all right. But I did not mean to steal the car. I was pretty well lit up yesterday, and was feeling good. I met a man—I don't know his name—on Beach street. He'd had a bit of a nip, too. Well, he suggested we take a machine and have a ride. I said, 'You're on,' and we hopped to a Chevrolet, standing in front of a drug store.

"Just as we were turning around, a man jumped on the running board and asked us what we were doing with his car. The fellow with me pushed him off. Before we could start up Beach street, he picked himself up and jumped on again.

"When I saw my friend throw him off the second time we were going pretty fast—about 25 miles an hour. I knew we were in for it so I opened her up. That's about all there is to tell. I guess I couldn't have driven so fast through that sand road if I hadn't been drunk. We never hit a thing. When we got to the point and the road ended, the fellow with me jumped into the brush and disappeared. I crawled down out of sight and went to sleep and didn't wake up till daylight. Then I started along the river bank—and you know the rest."

Thief Came From Titusville.

According to Callon's story, he arrived in Daytona yesterday from Titusville. He had on his person a letter addressed to himself at Rockledge, but he claims he lives in Clermont, Florida, and drives a car for a private family. He admits being in Miami a short time ago and, finding business dull, he decided to work up the line to Daytona. He says the affair last night started as only a prank.

He will plead guilty to the charge and ask mercy of the court. He will be taken to Deland either today or tomorrow after a preliminary hearing in Daytona.

Cost of Living High in Teheran.

In normal times Teheran, Persia, is one of the most expensive cities in the world in which to live, so states Vice-Consul Ralph H. Bader. Consignments for $20 per ton, apples, 1.50 per bushel; cheese, 70 cents per pound; lamb, 65 cents per pound; butter, 15 cents per pound. These high prices are largely caused by the lack of transportation facilities. Coal is transported to Teheran from the nearest mine a distance of 100 miles, by donkeys. Goods imported through the Persian gulf are transported from Bushamirah or Bushamirah to Teheran a distance of 800 miles, by mules and camels, and are usually from six to twelve weeks in transit. Goods imported through Russia are subject to a heavy transit duty and are transported across the mountains from Elam to Teheran a distance of 450 miles, by pack animals and wagons.

"SOCIETY WOLVES" AT
ARCADE WEDNESDAY

The management has secured a special feature for Wednesday, March 15th, entitled "The Society Wolves," a sensational detective drama in five parts, featuring Elaine Terris and Adrian Jacobs.

One of the main features of this most beautiful play is the most unique setting and the expensive gowns.

All Word.

In an obscure country chapel a young minister was to be married. He had used in his sermon for an illustration of storm and peace, the storm on the lake of Gennesareth. That storm was depicted as one of lightning and thunder, and rain and wind. As he came out of the chapel one of the members tackled him in the midst of the people. He began by saying: "That was a wonderful description of that storm, the only thing about it was it wasn't true. Who told thee it thundered and lightened and rained?" "Why," said the preacher, "those are the natural accompaniments of a storm." "Ah," said he, "but if thee had read thy Bible thee would have seen that it was a storm of wind, just like thine."

VERNON CASTLES
PLEASE CHOWDS AT THE NEW DAYTONA

Crowded houses witnessed Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle in "The Whirl of Life" at the popular New Daytona Theater yesterday afternoon and evening, and "believe me," it was some "whirl." The Castles kept on the move every inch of the six reels and kept things lively throughout.

The scenario was written by Vernon Castle himself, and if this be a sample of what he can do in photoplay writing, he can at least make a living with his brains if his feet ever give out. The scenes were picturesque and the dancing, of course, superb.

The whole photoplay, in fact, is unique and is sure of success wherever it is shown. The Castle's special syncopated music is played during the exhibition, which adds considerably to the show. It will be shown again this afternoon and evening, and from the many favorable comments heard, it promises to play to capacity houses during the rest of the engagement.

No time to make up bum verse—been chasing auto robbers. Chief Milton and I caught one of them. He was nearer to the robber than I was—that was the reason he caught him.
I was runnin' as fast as I could. Nearly for a visit with her sons in that his mother.

Love and Goul.

Some sensitive, loving natures seem born with souls but most children and youth boast only innocence and joy.
Loving comes later—a sweet and fragrant flower of the heart, born in gardens where tears are shed. Its coming seems to change the whole outlook upon life, the whole estimate of self.
The birth of love seems also to be the birth of fear—not fear for oneself but for the one beloved and fear's shadow seems ever to rest upon the loving heart; fear that they themselves do not give love enough; fear that their love be not returned; fear that life is not giving; the cherished one all that is desired or needed; fear that some evil may befall the child or youth, the man or woman thus held supremely dear. There is fear that distance may remove them, that suffering or death may lay grim hands upon them, and out of these apprehensions of love the soul is born, the life becomes spiritualized by self-sacrifice, brave to defend eager to give patient to endure.—Baltimore Sun.

JOHNNY JONES BUSY AMUSING THE PEOPLE

The week of fun which the Johnny J. Jones exposition shows are scheduled to provide Daytonians, began in great style last evening when the new aggregation assembled by the astute showman, Johnny J.
Jones, offered its initial performances here. An unusually large crowd was on hand and the various attractions did a better-than-ordinary first nights business.

The Jones carnival, as it is arranged on the City Island, resembles nothing more than a miniature world's fair or Coney Island. Probably more the latter, with the river washing against the guy ropes of the tents and bringing to one's mind recollections of the summer park. The beautiful new fronts of the shows, brilliantly illuminated, present a wonderful sight.

The entertainments of even inside the tents are up to the usual standard maintained by the Jones combination.
The newest features, which has been so much talked of, the Miracle, was crowded at each performance and its audiences were enthusiastic in their praise of this unique show. The program commences with a nifty marionette act which brought forth rounds of applause, then comes The Dance of the Lily, offered by Miss Bootsie Hurd, a vaudeville artist of note; next is seen the Gold Dance, in which Miss Lillian Carson Murray, until recently a star on the Pantages Circuit of vaudeville theaters, utilizes a dress made of one hundred yards of gold braid. Miss Margaret Wilby, the possessor of an exceedingly charming voice, renders several clever musical selections and then comes the "Miracle" from which the show derives its name. The scene is presented with all the fixings necessary to transport one, as it were, to the banks of the River Nile and there transpires a representation of the Biblical story of the discovery of Moses in the bull-rushes. Then follows the "Miracle", itself, the turning of the statue to life and the transformation of the woman back to stone. The show is high class throughout, and is dressed in true theatrical style, with beautiful lighting effects, handsome scenic arrangements and a good orchestra. It is easily the best attraction with the carnival.

There are other interesting exhibits, including the big blue show, with the midget family, the fat girl, the giantess, glass blowers, mental telepathists, Australian bush people and other curiosities and the Crystal Tangle, Trip to Mars,
The Alligator Girl, Omo, The Wonder,
and Dions Animal Curiosities are good.
The Dakota Max Wild West is a first rate show and the Dixieland Minstrels very entertaining.

The much heralded riding device,
The Whip, was not in readiness Monday, but will open tonight. It occupies an extensive space in the center of the Midway and looks as if it might furnish plenty of excitement.

Major and Mrs. Wiley Abercrombie came up from New Smyrna, Sunday, and will be here for a few days' visit with W. W. and the Misses Emma and Lilla Abercrombie, at their home on Myrtle avenue.

Miss Katherine C. Ganley, Editor.

Society Happenings For the Coming Week

Tuesday evening a brilliant society dance will take place at the Palmetto clubhouse given by recent debutantes, Miss Hildegrade Courtney and Miss Marion Hilliard. This promises to be a very successful function as the girls are most popular and charming hostesses.

Wednesday morning a special board meeting for the admission of new members to the Palmetto club will be held in the Palmetto clubhouse.

Thursday afternoon, three of Daytona's all-the-year-round society matrons, Mrs. E. T. Conrad, Mrs. F. N. Conrad and Mrs. T. E. Fitzgerald, will entertain at an auction bridge party in the Palmetto clubhouse, to which a number of invitations have been sent out.

A St. Patrick's card party will be held at the Palmetto clubhouse, Friday afternoon, under the direction of the Palmetto club.

Valuable Nut.

British scientists have discovered that a nut allied to the nutmeg that grows in Brazil yields an oil of much value in the manufacture of soap.

Mushroom Hunting Dangers.

The advantage of rattlesnake hunting over mushroom hunting seems to be that you know the snake is poisonous. As near as can be made out there seems to be one sure way of telling the character of your find, and that was described by a foreigner who asked if gathering mushrooms was not risky: "All right, most every day. Bimeby somebody die, then we not eat for a week."

Exaltation of Pie.

While we always feel that seasonal influences are strong, we nevertheless have a hunch that the pie is beginning to approach by slow degrees the surpassing glory to which it is usually entitled.—Houston Post.

Miss Adelaide Young Entertains Card Club

Miss Adelaide Young, of Pittsburgh, Pa., who is wintering at the Magnolia on North Ridgewood avenue, entertained the Neighborhood club, Monday evening, most delightfully.

The decorations were a la St. Patrick, and very attractive. The girls played bridge, their usual form of pleasure, and the prize was won by Miss Marion Gabeler, of Cypress street.

After the card game a pleasant social hour was enjoyed, during which refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be with the Misses Daisy and Cecelia Schmadeke, of Ridgewood avenue.

Dudley Buck Musicals

The music department of the Palmetto club will give its Friday morning musicale in the Congregational church, March 17th, beginning at 10:00 o'clock. The life and the compositions of Dudley Buck will be the subject, under the leadership of Miss May Jolley.

These musicales, begun this year, have become most popular, and judging from the number of the club members and friends who attend, the ladies in charge of these musical mornings, Mrs. W. E. Hitchcock, Miss Armeta Peirson and Mrs. M. P. Cornwall, are in great measure, repaid for their splendid efforts. The musicales are not only a source of pleasure, but each one a lesson in the life of some particular musician, whose compositions are come upon nearly every day of life.

Punishing Thieves in China.

In China thieves who are caught stealing are compelled to make a tour of the neighboring villages with a board, bearing an account of their offense, clamped round their necks.

No Rivalry.

A visitor was being shown over a big cotton mill by the proprietor, who proudly displayed some of the fabrics produced. Holding up a piece of printed calico, he said: "Our latest pattern. Excellent work, isn't it?" "It's all right," said the visitor, "but you can't hold a candle to the goods we turn out in my works!" "Same line?" asked the host, somewhat offended. "No," rejoined the other; "ours is gunpowder!"

Entertains at Cards

Exceedingly attractive was the card party given at the Palmetto clubhouse, Monday afternoon, by Mrs. Lester Mitchell and Mrs. Harry Thompson, two of Daytona's charming society matrons.

The clubhouse was artistically decorated with potted plants and broad palmetto leaves. A lovely basket of cyclamen upon a table in the center of the card room was a very striking feature of the arrangement. In the tea room large vases of snapdragons and lovely bowls of red roses carried out the floral decoration.

Fourteen tables of auction were enjoyed, occupied by beautifully gowned ladies, all intent upon the game. Miss Adelaide Young received the first prize, Mrs. F. J. Niver the second, and Miss Hannah Palmer the third.

After cards a salad course was served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller and daughter, of Detroit, Mich., arrived Monday and are stopping at the Princess Isena.

Tourists Club Met

The Tourists club of St. Paul's church met at the Parochial house on Myrtle avenue, Monday evening, and enjoyed cards. A very pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed, and a large gathering was present. The very pleasant and attractive idea of the club, to meet and enjoy each other's society was most delightfully carried out. After the card game visiting was enjoyed and delicious refreshments served.

WILBUR BY THE SEA

WILBUR-BY-THE-SEA, March 11.—

A surprise party was given to H. A. MacLachlan on Thursday. The entire colony met at the club house and then went in a body to Mr. MacLachlan's cottage on Riversidedrive. They found Mr. Mac asleep in front of the fire and they succeeded in giving him a complete surprise. After giving Mr. Mac time to wash up and put his coat on a line was formed and all marched to the club house. Here games were enjoyed and refreshments served. Mr. MacLachlan was called on for a speech and he said the one great thing that had impressed him with Wilbur-by-the-Sea was the spirit of hospitality which prevailed. He said in all his travels he had never been made to feel so much at home as he had been with the new friends he had made at Wilbur.

Hon. and Mrs. C. C. Vaughn, secretary of state of Michigan, are the guests at one of the Wilbur cottages. Mr. Vaughn is a great fisherman and is enjoying the sport at Wilbur.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Eaton left on Saturday for a week's trip to Palm Beach and Miami.

Mr. Vaughn, secretary of state of Michigan, spoke at the club house Sunday evening. He took as his subject "The Young Men's Christian Association of Michigan." Mrs. King had charge of the Sunday evening service. Selections were rendered by a quartette consisting of A. P. Gilman, Miss Fannie Piper, Mrs. F. S. Bryant and Harold Bates. Miss Alice Ross rendered a selection on the harp.

Saturday evening the social was in charge of Mrs. Carn and Mrs. Davis and everybody had a fine time. A collation was served after the games.

Daily Thought.

A man's own conscience is his sole tribunal and he should care no more for that phantom "opinion" than he should fear meeting a ghost if he crosses the churchyard at dark.—Lytton.

Unconvinced.

"Now, to illustrate the roundness of the earth," said Columbus, "I will show you an egg." "That doesn't convince me," replied the court astronomer. "If you had waited till the egg became an omelet it would prove that the earth is flat."

"HELENE OF THE NORTH"
AT DAYTONA WEDNESDAY

Marguerite Clark's latest screen characterization, "Helene of the North," presents this dainty star in the most unique impersonation she has yet assumed since her first triumphant association with the motion picture art. The subject combines in a decidedly novel manner the cultured atmosphere of aristocratic society circles with the rugged environment of the trackless wastes of Northwestern Canada. Between these far extremes, the drama sways with uninterrupted fascination. Whether in the limitless wilds, or the warm, luxurious drawing room, Marguerite Clark is equally effective and appealing, and as the central character of this unique dramatic romance, she attains a greater success than any of her screen triumphs.

"THE WOOD NYMPH"
AT CRYSTAL WEDNESDAY

Quite timely is Miss Doro's wonderful appearance in the Fine Arts-Triangle drama, "The Wood Nymph." Against a picturesque background of trees in a mountain glade carpeted with grass and flowers, the charming star flits as if on wings. It is a pretty story, "The Wood Nymph," and Miss Doro makes it seem like a dream that is as real as real can be.

Dauphne (Marie Doro) is a child of the forest, having been brought up far from civilization among the big trees.

She is a wild happy young thing, who goes skipping and dancing in her exuberance of life. She has read about the Greek gods and goddesses till her imagination pictures them all around her. She is particularly pleased with the fancy that Appolo lives in a certain tree. She closes her eyes, clasps her little hands and calls for Appolo to appear. William Jones (Charles West) suddenly steps around the tree. She opens her eyes and is astonished to see him. She thinks he must be the god, but can't understand his dress. He is a fine looking fellow and she is soon satisfied to call him sweetheart Bill Jones. There are sensational complications, including a forest fire and remarkable human interest situations.

"THE WARRENS OF VIRGINIA" AT CRESCENT THEATER WEDNESDAY

Agatha Warren, daughter of the aristocratic Southern General Warren, has, before the Civil War, fallen in love with Ned Burton, of New York. With the beginning of hostilities, Gen. Warren takes command of many of the Southern troops, and Burton, enlisting in the Union army, becomes a Lieutenant, the lovers being separated by their different sympathies.

Most of the action of the drama—which, is beyond question, the most superb battle spectacle ever produced—takes place during the closing days of the war, when Gen. Warren's soldiers are suffering from the lack of supplies. Burton is forced by his superior officers to use his intimacy with the Warren family in carrying a ruse which leads to the defeat of the supply trains coming to the relief of the Confederate army. When he is captured, Agatha, still loving him in spite of herself, offers him the means of escape which he is too proud to accept. The timely surrender of Lee at Appomattox is all that saves him from being shot.

The sequel to these stirring events is the ultimate reunion of the lovers. "The Warrens of Virginia" ran for more than a year at the Belasco Theater in New York City and is acknowledged to be the one great classic of the American Civil War, showing the true motives of both sides and the sorrows of fratricidal warfare.

Made from selected grade of Pennsylvania Crude, which has a paraffin base. Don't take a "Just as Good," but insist on having Harris' oil. If your garage man cannot furnish it, address Box 555, Daytona Beach. 1tc

(By International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, March 14.—It is understood that no developments in the submarine situation are expected for weeks, but a reply from the Allies in answer to the protest of the United States against the interference with American mails may arrive at any time. There is nothing more to be done, however, until Secretary Lansing returns next week from Pinehurst, N. C. Negotiations with Germany are at a standstill until the attitude of the Allies toward this country is firmly established.
